

An Easter Greeting

James Lowry
Hendersonville, North Carolina

Let Easter's glad vision take you out beyond the last galaxy where there is no calendar, fence, or watch and back again to every wee place great and small and listen ... listen as the grandfather clock chimes each new hour so filled with peril ... so filled with hope all bathed in the light that is not overcome by even the darkest news cycle.
